

Hosted Web Conferencing

Meet, Train and Provide Support Across the Internet

Three Levels of Service

Inter-Tel Hosted Web Conferencing has three different levels of service – Basic, Enhanced and Premier. For each higher level of service, more features and capabilities become available. You can choose the package that best fits your individual or organizational needs.

Inter-Tel Hosted Web Conferencing is also highly secure and reliable, so you can schedule your most important meetings and presentations with the knowledge that you've got world-class software on your side.

Inter-Tel's Hosted Conferencing services provide the ultimate in flexibility for Web and audio conferencing, with no reservations or advance plans required. It's total control.

We know that business doesn't always run in an orderly fashion. And successful business people are those who can keep up with changes and quickly move in new directions. That's why we created Inter-Tel Hosted Web Conferencing.

With pre-established Web and audio conferencing accounts for each user, you can create or participate in conferences with no advance notice, at any time, on any day. You can establish separate conference accounts for each of your users as needed – anytime, anywhere.

Plan Ahead or Impromptu – the Perfect Solution for Meetings

Inter-Tel Hosted Web Conferencing is perfect for team meetings, weekly sales meetings, weekly client calls, or other calls involving up to as many as 50 participants. Each authorized individual on your account will receive a card with the permanent dial-in number and activation PIN codes for easy access to their conferences.

With your conferencing accounts in place, you're free to reschedule your conferences as your needs change and you won't incur any costs for rescheduling. You pay only for the time you use.
